

Calvary's Crossroads

From the Pastor's Desk...

On June 19th a group of folks got together to dream and vision. The question was raised, what would the lives of people look like if they experienced church as a place where they were nourished by the waters of faith and sustained in their living (similar to the tree in Jeremiah 17)?

Crossroads is published by Calvary Lutheran Church and distributed to members and friends of the congregation. Please direct all inquiries, including story ideas and requests for additional copies, to the church office:

The list that was developed included:

1. They would actively welcome all.
2. They would be saying, "I want to go to church."
3. They would have a sense of community.
4. There would be interactions across generations.
5. They would be able and willing to claim their Christian identity.
6. They would be sharing and wrestling with Bible stories, life stories, and "big questions."
7. They would participate in full membership of the congregation.
8. They would be involved in mentoring and teaching peers and children.
9. They would know they are valued.
10. They would value this time (Sunday morning or whenever the community gathers), this space (the church building), and these people.
11. They would invite others – "Come and see".
12. They would be willing to risk new experiences.
13. They would be serving their neighbor.
14. They would know and feel safe at church and with other congregational members.
15. They would have an active prayer life.
16. They would see God as an active participant in life.
17. They would find ways to share their gifts and resources – time, talents and money.

Interestingly, this list was developed as we talked about people—ages birth to 18—and what it would mean to further develop children's and youth ministry at Calvary, Bethel, and Our Saviour's. Yet, as was aptly noted in the meeting, this list could be formulated for each of our congregations...for people of ALL ages!

We found that our vision and dream for community spans across the ages and across our congregations. We found great hope both in who we are and what we might yet become.

So, in the coming weeks, we will be engaging in next steps regarding a Children's and Youth position and collaborative ministry. Stay tuned for these developments.

But, also, join with me in continuing the work of our own Visioning Plan (which was adopted at the June 27th congregational meeting). Each committee and group will be exploring what it means to be nourished by the waters of faith here at Calvary and richly living into the vision.

The plan is not merely about goals or objectives, but rather about being the living witness and bearers of fruit as we are planted here at Calvary and rooted in the holy waters of our God.

With thanks for witness and times of renewal!
Pastor Brad

Thanks Thanks to those who signed the special 'Memorial Quilt' in Nancy Grover's honor. It is being used as a fundraiser for Calvary's 'Thanks for the Mammaries' walkers on The Breast Cancer 3-Day walk and will be given to Pat Olson.

There will be two more Sundays that it will be available for signatures, August 8th and August 22nd. Please call Joanne Shepherd to arrange for a signature if these two dates will not work out for your schedule.

Thanks Greetings Pastor Brad and all the dear saints of Calvary Lutheran Church,

Thank you for championing the ministry and mission of Bethany in this critical time in the life of our congregation. We have made some great strides financially [and have received over $5300 from supporting congregations]. But more importantly, we are sensing new life and vitality as the Spirit swooshes and swirls among us! In May, we launched an eight-month intentional visioning process to enable us to set and prioritize our goals for the next five years. Our worship attendance is slowly growing, and we received 12 new members on the Day of Pentecost. Bethany has not had a new member class in years! Indeed, the Spirit moves among us. And I know she moves among you as you reach out in mission to us and others.

We look forward to celebrating our shared ministry with you this fall as Bethany plans a festival worship service to thank all the congregations who have generously given in our time of need. We cannot express our appreciation enough; it is truly a joyful thing to be surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses. Thank you for believing in Bethany...for believing in our God who makes all things new!

In deep gratitude,
Pastor Justin Lind-Ayres and the congregation of Bethany Lutheran Church

Calling all Calvary members! Children's Education 2010-2011

The Education Committee would like to invite you to consider serving as a Sunday School teacher next year. Our Sunday School is growing by leaps and bounds and we need your help to ensure that we continue to provide a quality Christian education program for our kids.

Several of our current teachers have been teaching for years and will be taking a break to engage in other work. This means that new teachers are needed! No experience is necessary, only a love of kids and a willingness to share the Good News with them. The curriculum, supplies, training and support are provided. There will be an orientation time on September 12.

Ideally, we would like to have three teachers for each class, keeping the time commitment manageable for all. If you have not yet taught Sunday School, is this your year? If it has been many years since you last taught Sunday School, is it time to offer your gifts again? Please prayerfully consider answering this call to serving our kids next year as a Sunday School teacher. Let any member of the Education Committee know of your interest.

Thank you! Tami Tripp, Jennifer McCarthy, Sarah Zeigler, Sarah Lahr, Laura Huff, Saanii Hernandez-Mohr, Alissa Frost, Amy Knowlen, and Pastor Brad

Welcome to our new members

Alissa Lynn Van Horne Frost was born in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, along with her sister Livia. She spent a fairly idyllic childhood there and every other summer in Canada. Her family moved to Orlando, Florida when she was 13. She finished High School there and went to college at Florida State. Eventually, she got a degree in Early Childhood Education. She worked as a classroom teacher in Orlando for two years before she and her sister decided to head back to the mid-west. The young man she had just met, named Jay Frost, moved up a few months later. They were married in 2005 and Daniel was born in 2007, right after she finished her first school year teaching in St. Louis Park. This fall she will begin her 5th year teaching First Steps, the first public IB preschool in the country. Just ask her what IB is and why it is the teaching model of future, if you don't mind listening to her talk for a few hours.

Alissa loves summers when she gets to bike, camp, swim and picnic with her family near and far. She likes to read and write, garden and cook when she gets the time (so not too often). She is an avid traveler and her favorite places are Prague, Cinque Terre, and the Ngorongoro Crater.

She has recently become an active member of Al-Anon. Alissa was raised United Methodist and was a member of a UU church in Orlando. She looked for a long time for a church in Minneapolis where she felt comfortable. She found Cavalry when Livia started attending. She immediately felt welcomed and encouraged by the many families with young children. When she learned how open-minded, locally active and thoughtful the church was on the whole, she knew she had finally found a spiritual home.

Daniel Colton Frost turned three on July 13th after almost three straight weeks of being spoiled by visiting grandparents! He was very excited to get a big boy bed and his parents are very excited that he is wearing big boy underpants. Daniel loves books, music, pretending, I Spy, anything with wheels, and his grandparents. He is also a big fan of Pastor Brad. Even though he is typically "slow to warm up" he liked Brad the first time he met him. He notices when Brad is gone and asks "Where Bed?"

Lisa Negstad, is excited to be a part of the Calvary community and looking forward to getting to know each of you better. After a few months of going to Calvary, she realized she had gotten a reputation as an impulsive joiner. Almost everyone she met said to her, "Oh, you're the one who joined after attending only once." Lisa had been looking for a church home for quite awhile so she knew a good fit when she saw it.

Life is circling back for Lisa in this latest transition. She was born in Minneapolis during her father's last year at Luther seminary. Her childhood was spent in Mohall, ND; Sioux Falls, SD and Davenport, Iowa. After getting a Bachelor's degree from Luther College, Lisa migrated to the East Coast and lived there (tossing in a three-year stint of living in Cambodia) for almost 20 years.

Lisa is passionate about helping non-profits thrive and flourish. She has spent her whole career working for them, primarily in the refugee and international development field. Having earned an MBA from Yale University, she enjoys using it for the benefit of organizations with a social justice mission. Her most recent position was as an internal consultant working for Lutheran World Relief.

A few years ago, Lisa started to feel a calling to be closer to family and to live in an environment where the outdoors was more at her doorstep. So she moved to Minnesota and started her own business to work with non-profits (Negstad Consulting), with a focus on non-profit strategy and staff leadership programs.

She loves living in Minnesota and especially likes the serious seasons it offers! Having recently bought a share in a cabin in the Superior National Forest, about 40 minutes north-west of Two Harbors, Lisa is excited (as is her English Springer Spaniel, Kjell) to spend time there in all of the seasons.

Welcome to our new members

Anne Williams-Wengerd was born into a Lutheran Family in eastern North Dakota, but has since participated in numerous different Christian denominations. Anne was brought to Minneapolis for college and has liked the city, the lakes and the culture so much she has decided to stay! Her diverse experiences in the Christian faith have caused her to seek a balance between a personal faith and a commitment to social justice. Anne has worked in different areas of mental health which have highlighted the need and the importance of the call to take care of the most vulnerable in society and she feels that this is an integral part of her faith. Her current work in a mental health crisis team is a calling and a profession.

Anne was brought to Calvary via a friend (who is her now-husband, Isaac) to attend the Lenten services back in 2005. The worship and the people at Calvary made a lasting impression, so when looking for a church home with Isaac and son, Henry, Calvary felt like a perfect fit! Anne feels extremely blessed to be a part of the Calvary community where it is so very apparent that the calling is to love Jesus by loving others. Currently, her experience of being a mother to a beautiful 17-month old son continues to remind of her the amazing love that God has for his children. Anne enjoys spending time with Henry and Isaac, as well as, reading, second-hand store shopping, walking and being with friends.

Henry David Williams Wengerd was born on March 4, 2009 at St. Joseph's hospital in St. Paul. It was apparent the day he was born that he was "spirited" as his mom recalls that he didn't close his eyes or sleep much that first day of life. This would prove to be a trend throughout much of the next year! Henry has since become much more accustomed to sleep and is a very active young boy. He loves his puppy, Max and would love to live outside if it were possible. Henry loves being read to and playing with anything in the cupboards that has a lid. Henry loves coming to church at Calvary, and you will find him to be a more "active" participant!

As a child, Isaac Wengerd's family joined an intentional Christian community in his hometown of Elkhart, Indiana. In this communal setting, he grew up with a blend of Christian traditions though the group was part of the Mennonite Church. Isaac was baptized as a teenager and spent four years at a Mennonite college in Virginia. However, a semester in the Middle East, a course on the writings of Dietrich Bonhoeffer, and friendships with some very cool Lutherans would eventually lead him to the Lutheran tradition as he sought to understand how his faith could be rooted first in God's grace, rather than on good works alone.

The need for God's grace was never more apparent then in March of 2000, when his first wife Lisa was diagnosed with non-Hodgkin's lymphoma. Lisa passed away in 2001 but the love of Isaac's family and close friends (several of whom are Calvary members), helped him through this difficult time.

When Isaac met his wife Anne in 2005, they realized their varied faith experiences would not fit easily in one church tradition. While visiting a variety of churches, however, they remembered the rich worship and vibrant and loving people they had met during visits to Calvary and decided to make this their new church home.

Isaac works as an anti-poverty grants administrator at the MN Department of Human Services. He loves to be entertained by his 17-month old son Henry and to fish, canoe, camp, make pottery and remodel their house with any remaining time.

Letter from Bishop Mark Hanson Regarding Immigration Reform

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ,

The time has come for immigration reform in the United States. Yes, the issues are complex and not easily resolved. It is understandable that people are wary of engaging this politically and emotionally charged issue. Yet it would be tragic if we withdrew as people of faith and our voices fell silent. We have an opportunity for evangelical witness to our faith in God who is present in the stranger and calls us to extend hospitality. "Welcome one another, therefore, just as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God" (Romans 15:7 NRSV).

The biblical witness is clear. The distinctions that so often divide humankind are overcome in Christ. By grace through faith on account of Christ we are joined together in a radically inclusive community. "For in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith. As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus" (Galatians 3:26-28).

Because God mercifully extends gracious hospitality in restoring us to community, we have a clear calling. That call is heard in God's command to the people of Israel, "You shall also love the stranger, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt. ... Then you, together with the Levites and the aliens who reside among you, shall celebrate with all the bounty that the Lord your God has given to you and to your house" (Deuteronomy 10:19; 26:11).

Most, but not all, Lutherans in the United States are the descendants of immigrants or are recent immigrants. Others are descendants of slaves brought to this country or people who lived here before the arrival of the first Europeans and Africans. Our personal histories and faith stories are of an immigrant people moving in search of freedom, opportunity and safety.

The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America is being renewed by the faith and witness of new and recent immigrants. This year 23 of 41 new ELCA ministry starts will be in immigrant communities, and more than 100 African national ministries have begun in the past three years.

We cannot welcome people into the ELCA, however, without caring about their lives, their concerns and their experiences as newcomers in this country. For that reason the ELCA repeatedly has affirmed the biblical witness and our shared experience, culminating in an affirmation by the 2009 Churchwide Assembly "that the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Service (LIRS) are committed to work toward comprehensive [immigration] reform that balances respect for the law with the recognition of due process and respect for humanitarian principles." Stating that "the nation's immigration system is broken, and Congress and the administration must work together to find a just and humane solution while assuring orderly migration," LIRS identifies four foundational values for immigration reform:

- keeping families together
- maintaining basic human and worker rights
- helping our new neighbors come out of the shadows
- seeking a path to permanence for our new neighbors

As you serve in your communities, I commend to you resources for study and action (Toward Compassionate, Just, and Wise Immigration Reform [2009] and other resources), the voices of immigrant families and believers, and the witness of the Scriptures.

The concluding words of the Message on Immigration (1998) remind us "that all of us in the Church of Jesus Christ are sojourners, 'For here we have no lasting city, but we are looking for the city that is to come' (Hebrews 13:14). As we journey together through the time God has given us, may God give us the grace of a welcoming heart and an overflowing love for the new neighbors among us."
